

OLD LOUISVILLE 5000

November 17, 2007

Cherokee Road Runners will conduct their 29th annual fall 5K Run through scenic Central Park located at Fourth and Magnolia Streets, in downtown Louisville, KY, on Saturday, November 17th at 9:00 AM. The 3.1 mile run is a figure-eight course consisting of three loops in and around Central Park. The course is considered fast and flat. The non-competitive 2 Mile Walk will begin on St. James Court and along the surrounding streets. The walk starts at 9:10 AM.

Registration and Entry Fees – Walk-in registration accepted at Ken Combs Running Store, 4137 Shelbyville Rd, 10-7 PM. Deadline for walk-in registration is Monday, November 12th. Race day registration will be taken at 8:00 AM in the Old Louisville Information Center building in Central Park. There is no mail-in registration.

In this time of thanksgiving and appreciation for our health and running capabilities, we ask that you participate in helping our fellow man by supplementing your entry fee with canned goods which will be donated to the West End Baptist Church near Central Park to feed the homeless.

Adults: $10.00 *with canned goods or non-perishable items
Youth (17 & under): $5.00 *with non-perishable items or canned goods

Awards/Age Groups - Awards to Overall Male/Female Winners; Overall Male/Female Master and Grandmaster Winners, as well as the top three (3) Male/Female Winners in age groups of 9 and under, through 70 and over.

Post Race – Goodies will be provided after the run and walk.

Contact Race Directors – Dianne Ernst, (502) 425-6798 or Donna McCabe (502) 495-1615 for additional information and/or to volunteer to help with race. Website: www.cherokeeoadrunners.org
